full steam ahead...

Excuse the dodgy pun but we just really wanted to show you these awesome images! We found Nicola on twitter (@DaffodilWaves) and she mentioned that they had just finished a shoot with some schuh shoes. Obviously, we were desperate to check it out and we are incredibly pleased we did. The images look fantastic and don't the schuh berta wedges scrub up well? Do check out the Daffodil Waves blog as there is some stunning photography on there:
