Less is more. Simple is better than complicated.

At Wedding Ideas magazine we loved the way this couple used the richness of their imaginations to create a fabulous-looking wedding for under £5000.

Sometimes a budget makes you think harder. Stacy's wedding gown was just £150. "Perfect." She found the bridesmaids' striking pink fuchsia maxi-dresses in a supermarket bridal range.

Elegant hand-tied bouquets were sourced from a market.

On the morning of the wedding, the bride and chief bridesmaid got up early. They dressed the reception room themselves, tying themed fuchsia pink sashes around the chairs.

A local baker made pretty pink cupcakes.

Budget maybe. A stylish day certainly.
